

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 05-C-416
(96-CR-4)

ROY EVANS,

Movant.

DECISION AND ORDER

In 1997, a jury found Roy Evans (“Evans”) guilty of various drug offenses for which this Court sentenced him to a term of imprisonment. He unsuccessfully appealed his conviction. In both 2002 and 2004, Evans sought relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255. The first motion was denied and the second motion was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction as a successive motion prohibited by statute. Next, in a filing received by the Court on April 11, 2005, Evans sought relief pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2). The Court found that motion to be an unauthorized successive attack on his sentence, which the Court accordingly dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Now, Evans has filed a motion asking the Court to reconsider its dismissal of his § 3582 motion.

In support of his present motion, Evans reasserts the arguments that failed to persuade this Court in the first instance; Evans has not presented any grounds which would cause the Court to reconsider its prior decision. Evans's § 3582 motion was properly characterized as a successive § 2255 motion and, even if this Court had jurisdiction to entertain Evans's motion, United States v. Booker, ___ U.S. ___, 125 S.Ct. 738 (2005) cannot afford him relief insofar as it is not retroactively applicable to criminal cases, like his, that became final before January 12, 2005. See McReynolds v. United States, 397 F.3d 479, 481 (7th Cir. 2005). Evans's motion to reconsider is without merit.

NOW, THEREFORE, BASED ON THE FOREGOING, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

Evans's Motion for Reconsideration of Motion under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2) for Sentence Reduction (Docket No. 5) is DENIED.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin this 28th day of April, 2005.
